

WATERFALL OF LAUGHTER AT "A TRIP TO BUFFALO."

Sultan Damit and Vaudeville at the New Star
Are a Mirthful Alloy.

"A Trip to Buffalo" was given its first New York presentation at the New Star Theatre last night. The programme called it a "brilliant musical extravaganza." The extravaganza is conceded at once. As to its brilliancy, a delicious audience sat through the performance. The trip seemed to be at the expense of a Turkish Sultan, whose girl sadly interfered with his poetic movements. In the first act there was a plot. The Sultan, after numerous fits of royal rage, a la Harlem, was persuaded by an attenuated aggregation of American envoys to attend the Pan-American Exposition.

In the second act the plot with much travel, having survived a pair of Irish comedians whose lung power was fully warranted, carried Sultan Abdul Damit and his court across the ocean. By a judicious use of baby's food and salt baths the company was rushed to Buffalo, but then the plot gave way under the strain, dying nobly in the face of a large bunch of vaudeville specialists, including a cakewalk.

If the show had only omitted the cakewalk it would have been on the rolls of fame. Buffalo is yet to be heard from as to what happened when Abdul Damit, Ameta, the flower of his harem, and twenty odd royal Turkish dancers got lost in its wilds. If Ameta could be accounted for we might force the rest. She sings things.

The vaudeville specialists, the chorus costumed in styles equally unknown in Turkey and Buffalo, and the music were right up to the star standard. But they might leave out the furious rage of the Sultan. It wears on a timid man.

NEW PLAYBILLS.
The "Florodora" company that entertained for so long on Broadway was blithe and merry as ever last night at the Harlem Opera-House.—May Irwin and her fan-makers have dropped into New York for Holy Week and are entertaining at the Grand Opera-House.—"Pennsylvania" is the new melodramatic offering at the Third Avenue Theatre.—"The Fatal Wedding" is at the Metropolitan Theatre.—"Lend Me Five Shillings" and "David Garrick" are presented by the Murray Hill stock company.—A spectacular production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," with half a hundred jolly and lively characters, is on at the American Theatre.—New

BROKE NOSE OF QUEENS POLITICIAN

BOROUGH PRESIDENT CASSIDY'S BROTHER IN COURT.

Charged with Assault on the Former Sergeant-at-Arms of the Municipal Assembly.

Dr. Thomas M. Cassidy, living at No. 12 Eleventh street, Long Island City, brother of President Cassidy, of the borough of Queens, was arraigned in the Long Island City Court this morning on the charge of assault in the second degree. The complaint was by William M. Wright, who was sergeant-at-arms of the old Municipal Assembly. Wright and Cassidy had been political friends until a few weeks ago, when there is said to have been a rupture. Wright was talking to Thomas Cassidy, editor of the Observer, in Miller's Hotel, yesterday when, he says, Cassidy assaulted him, breaking his nose and otherwise injuring him. Cassidy says that Wright first struck at him. As Wright was not in court this morning the case was continued to April 1.

STEAMSHIP AGREEMENT.

Var of British and Continental
Lines Said to Be Over.
LONDON, March 25.—The Liverpool set today says it understands that the continental and British steamship lines have settled their differences and that an agreement in regard to the routes between Europe and the United States will be announced in a few days.

MADE INSANE BY TOO MUCH SMOKING

GETCHINS USED 100 CIGARETTES A DAY.

Another Tried to Keep Tobacco
from Him, but Did Not Succeed.

Bert Getchins, nineteen years old, is being smoked from seventy-five to a hundred cigarettes a day and now is an insane inmate of the Richmond county Farm. His home was with his brother, the superintendent of the Mount Loretto home, New Dorp, S. I., and it was he who the youth secured enough to keep him on his lips. During the last few days he has imagined that efforts were being made to poison him, and because of his resentment these delusions he was taken from the Magistrate this morning and transferred to the county farm.

MANY ENTRIES RECEIVED.

Names of Xavier A. A. to Be Held on April 5.
Entries for the games of the Xavier A. and Company H. Eighth Regiment, at the Eighth Regiment Armory, on April 5, are coming in rapidly. As a special attraction a match relay race has been arranged between teams representing St. John's College and the College of the City of New York.

"TYPHOID" HABIT BRINGS GOOD FARE.

SILVERMAN CAN'T BE KEPT AWAY FROM HOSPITAL.

But Young Doctors Object and
Will Prosecute Him as a Vagrant.

The young doctors in the Brooklyn General Hospital don't like Marcus Silverman. He makes them get up at night and haul him to the hospital, asserting that he has typhoid fever when they say he hasn't. Silverman has done this four times in the last three months and they are tired of it. He worked it again last night and in consequence he is to be arraigned in the Myrtle Avenue Court next Thursday charged with vagrancy. Dr. S. T. E. made the complaint against him to-day. He told Magistrate Silverman that Silverman would come to the hospital insisting that he had typhoid, but that as soon as he was mildly fixed in a ward he would dump the medicine given him into a cup. He was very fond of the hospital fare and ate heartily. He was ordered out this morning, but refused to go and so the doctors decided to prosecute him. Silverman says he lives at No. 29 Monroe street, Manhattan.

Employers' Liability Bill Passed.
(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, March 25.—The State Employers' Liability bill was passed in the Assembly to-day by a vote of 116 yeas to 1 nay. The vote was a surprise to opponents of the measure who inferred from previous argument on the proposition that the House would divide. The bill now goes to the Governor.

ONLY WOMEN TO BE ON SCHOOL BOARD.

FLUSHING MEN TOO GALLANT TO SERVE.

Decline President Cassidy's Appointment—Now Fair Ones
Reseal Him.

Borough President Cassidy of Queens, learned to-day that if he wanted to secure School Commissioners for the borough he would have to appoint only women. The man can be found who will serve on the School Board. When President Swanstrom, of Brooklyn Borough, selected his School Commissioners he appointed a number of women and several of the latter resigned. Thinking that he would profit by President Swanstrom's action, Mr. Cassidy decided to appoint no women as members of the Flushing School Board. Through gallantry it was stated to-day three of the men decided not to accept their appointments and they have so informed Mr. Cassidy. Dr. P. J. Flynn, William Thornbury and another were the persons who declined to accept the appointments. Since it became known that men declined to serve on the School Board, women by the score are seeking commissions.

A SUIT LIKE THIS, NOW.—For women the "Gibson" or "Faubourg" style—narrow ribbon bands are the keynote of the Gibson; the other, as Etan, has stitched taffeta bands. A very swell skirt completes a regular $20.00 suit. Take $5.00 from $20.00, and our price is $15.00.

MISSSES' CORRECT EASTER GARB.—Eton jacket and flounce skirt in all-wool cheviot, black, navy, brown and castors. We find others get $18.50; all the same, our price is $14.00.

A Man Ought to Wear, Easter,

A Prince Albert Coat, White Vest and neatly striped Trousers. To fill that order here are handsome Vicuna Coats and Vests beginning at $18.00 and so up to $35.00—a whole array of White Vests, starting from $1.00 and Trousers in all branches, all right at $2.50; best in the house for $9.00.

What of the Boys?

Something bright—a Russian Suit, much braided and cute in fixings. Or, a plain, perhaps—nothing beats the old-time, ever-new, two-piece double-breasted; pattern here run into some mighty good values at $1.98, and all the way to $7.98. Or, a Sailor Suit, with its color, trim and comfort, $2.98 to $7.98. Or, a Norfolk, roomy, yet natty, $2.98 to $6.98. Over them, of course, a Top Coat (Covert is the thing), $2.98 to $6.49 the coat.

STAR BULL-FIGHTERS HERE.

Manzanita and Fuentes on Their Way Home to Spain.

Luis Manzanita and Antonio Fuentes, two of the greatest of Spain's bull-fighters, are stopping at the Hotel America, Irving place and Fifteenth street, for a few days before sailing for home. They have recently been appearing before audiences in Mexico, where they have killed more than one hundred bulls during the past three months.

Manzanita has been a bull-fighter for more than twenty years, and he has amassed a fortune. He was formerly a telegraph operator and was afterwards a law student, but gave up these occupations because they were not sufficiently profitable.

Simpson Crawford Co. Easter Apparel for Boys.

Bring the boys here, the showing of garments will not only cheer and delight their little hearts, but will prove a revelation to father and mother as well; and to all versed in the excellencies of boys' clothing manufacture. A choicer, richer or more complete stock of boys' clothing than ours 'twould be almost impossible to find.

Sailor and Russian Blouse Suits
$6.50 to $12.50.

For ages from 2½ to 12 years. Perfect gems of artistic tailoring, magnificent combination of silk and embroidery, double collar and shield. Some with silver soutache effects, also sailor suits with pique collars and cuffs. White serge party suits, black Tuxedos—in fact, a style for every occasion in all the popular colors and worthy fabrics.

Suits for Boys at $5.00.

Double-breasted sack, cutaway with vest, and Norfolk styles in flannels, chevrons, twills, worsted chevrons, serges, clay diagonals, cassimeres, ribbeds and wool or shes, all cut in the latest style and made and trimmed with extra care; linings are of the best mohair serge; every garment sewn throughout with pure silk. These are distinctly mannish suits and will appeal to the natty young dressers—kinds which you will see only in the highest priced exclusive establishments, but at prices ranging from $1.00 to $3.00 more per garment. For ages 10 to 16 years.

Boys' Suits, $2.95, $3.50, $3.95.

This is the largest and best collection of medium-priced suits to be found in this city, we believe. Fabrics are serges, worsteds, twills and chevrons. Styles are sailor, Norfolk and the new square cut. Even these very modest price garments are made with particular care as to detail and are far superior in every respect to garments that are shown in most stores at similar prices.
